FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION

SWORN COMPLAINT ~~2009~~ JUL -6 PM 12:32
BEFORE
THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

I, Paul Ware, complainant, hereby file this sworn complaint with the Federal Elections Commission. My address is P.O. Box 2343, Sugar Land, Texas 77487-2343.

The respondent is Fort Bend Democrats, P.O. Box 785, Richmond, Texas 77406, telephone: (832) 683-3340.

Violation: During the 2008 election campaign, the Fort Bend Democrats purchased flyers, door hangers and signs advocating the election of federal candidates Rick Noriega for United States Senate and Barack Obama for President. These were distributed all over Fort Bend County, Texas and cost well in excess of $1,000.00. I personally saw these items being used, placed and distributed in the county. I am also familiar with the costs of these materials. Upon a review of the reports filed with the Federal Elections Commission, I do not find any reporting of the expenditures for these federal candidates. Further, I find no registration of the Fort Bend Democrats as a federal PAC. I believe these actions were in violation of federal election law.

Attached is a copy of the door hanger that was distributed.

I, Paul Ware, complainant, swear that I have knowledge of the facts alleged in this complaint and that the information contained in this complaint is true and correct.

VOTE CHANGE!

Barack Obama can't change
our nation's direction by himself.

He needs all of our help, and that means electing strong Democratic leaders to help him bring about a better America.

Barack needs powerful progressive voices in the halls of Congress in Washington down to the halls of justice in Fort Bend County. That's why it's more important than ever to vote straight ticket Democrat.

The future of our country is at stake.
